Industry Veteran Andrew Barker Joins EDI as VP Business Development

Dubai, UAE
September 12, 2018

Energy Drilling International Ltd. (EDI) is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Barker as Vice President of Business Development. In his role, Mr. Barker will build on the early success of EDI in entering new geographic markets providing advanced directional drilling and other services to the growing range of international clients in the pan-Caspian/CIS region.

Mr. Barker has an extensive background in the global petroleum industry spanning 32 years, ranging from field engineering to management, including technical coordination, operational, sales & marketing, and executive management positions at Baker Hughes, Weatherford, and Lloyds Register. Andrew excels at strategic business development, market analysis, market penetration & expansion, and counter-intuitive opportunity realization. He has successfully developed and implemented transformational market penetration plans and high-caliber growth strategies across EDI's target markets.

Mr. Barker holds a BSc in Geological Sciences from the University of Aston in Birmingham, UK. He also studied for a Masters in Petroleum Business and Engineering at the Technical University of Delft in the Netherlands and the IFP in Paris, France.

Andrew Moncur, CEO of EDI, said, "We are excited that Andrew joins EDI's senior management team and brings his experience and track record in identifying and delivering on the multiple opportunities in the region. Andrew will strengthen our business development efforts in the Middle East and the pan-Caspian/CIS regions, where he has unparalleled experience and strong client relationships."
